

Cecil "Bud" Cook was born to Fred and Agnes (Edington) Cook at Werner, ND. He grew up and attended school in Werner. Cecil married the love of his life, Gertie Hagel, on August 17, 1945, in Billings, MT. They lived in Billings for a short time where Cecil worked at the Sugar Beet Factory. They later moved back to North Dakota to farm at Werner where Cecil resided until his death. Cecil's first love was his family, and he truly enjoyed everyone coming home to get together for gatherings at the farm, the latest gathering just being a couple of weeks ago. Some of his favorite times were the times he spent with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren when they came to visit. He always had the cards out, challenging anyone to a good game of cards, whether it was pinochle or crazy rummy. He enjoyed riding his four-wheeler, checking things out on the farmstead or driving the countryside checking out crops. He was proud of his sons, and when they were younger, always enjoyed going to their basketball games and activities. He especially was proud to belong to the North Dakota Official's Association as he occasionally got to referee some of their ball games. He also served on the Werner School Board. Cecil passed away on Monday, July 26, 2010, at his home south of Werner. Cecil is survived by five sons, Clayton (Marlene), Killdeer, ND, Wayne (Shelly), New Town, ND, Perry (Bonnie), Bismarck, ND, Macy (Janet), Garfield, KS, and Quincey (Lauren), Boise, ID; 11 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren, Michelle (Herb) Quamme, Charlie Cook, Chance Cook, Dan (Jen) Cook and their daughters, Hannah, Lilly, and Ashlyn, Pam Cook, Chris Cook, Cory (Amber) Cook and their daughters, Payton, Madelyn and Regan, Charles Cook, Dauna (Todd) Herman and their children, Kadan and Kirah, Jayson (Stephanie) and their children, Hannah and Logan, and Jeremy (Sarah) Cook; sister, Willa Lunceford, Smeltonville, ID; sisters-in-law, Katherine Alpert, Dickinson, ND, and Margaret Hagel, Yakima, WA; brother-in-law, Bill Ratzlaff and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife, Gertie; brothers, George, Mert, Tom, Warren, and Les; sisters, Grace, Eva, Marion, and Irene; and three grandchildren, Mitchell Cook, Renee Cook, and Susan Meduna. Cecil will always be remembered for his kind heart and big smile.

Cecil "Bud" Cook

March 1, 1926 - July 26, 2010

Dad

Cecil "Bud" Cook

FUNERAL SERVICE

Friday, July 30, 2010 10:00 a.m.
Normanna Lutheran Church
Dunn Center, North Dakota

PRAYER SERVICE

Thursday, July 29, 2010 7:00 p.m.
Stevenson Funeral Home
Killdeer, North Dakota

OFFICIATING

Pastor Joel Saurwein

MUSIC

Vocalist: Shelly Flagett
Organist: Adeline Thompson

PALLBEARERS

Clayton Cook	Wayne Cook
Perry Cook	Macy Cook
Quincey Cook	Dennis Dahlen

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

Michelle Quamme	Charlie Cook
Chance Cook	Dan Cook
Pam Cook	Chris Cook
Cory Cook	Dauna Herman
Jeremy Cook	Charles Cook
Jayson Cook

INTERMENT

Werner Cemetery
Dunn Center, North Dakota

ARRANGEMENTS BY

Stevenson Funeral Home
Killdeer, North Dakota

Lunch will be served at Normanna Lutheran Church following the graveside service. Everyone is Welcome.

When the angels came to get you,
They took along a piece of us all.
So while you're looking down from heaven,
Don't let your teardrops fall.

'Cuz you raised us good, you raised us proud,
Our head will stay high,
Our hearts will ache, tears will fall,
But this is not good bye.

Your body may have left us,
Your spirit never will,
We are who we are because of you,
Our memories with you will never stay still.

Your legacy will go on forever
Through the children's actions, words and ways.
Your soft heart, strong will, and talents
You've passed to us along the way.

Dad, continue watching over us,
We will miss you night and day
But go now, Dad, to be with your mom,
We will meet you there someday.